TO ALL MEMBERS

We have already begun work on the 2015 book sale. I know many of you are working on collections, publicity, sorting and any of the many aspects the sale requires. We also recognize that for one reason or another, many cannot contribute to this major fund raiser as much as they would like, if at all. Please consider contributing in alternative ways.

You may simply write a check to AAUW and give it to our Book Sale Treasurer, Lynda Grasse. Consider the check your donation to the sale. It will go for the same purpose, to fund our scholarships.

Purchase a poster. Our posters are $100.00 for a 16X20 poster and $250.00 for an 18X24 poster. They are framed and displayed at both the initial sale and the second chance sale. This is marvelous present to honor someone in your life. It could also be an opportunity to advertise a favorite cause or your business. If interested in information about a poster, please contact: Marge Collin 501-922-6032, Becky Gifford 922-1680, Karen Vinyard 915-0054.

Our scholarship applications increase every year. Your donations are so very important to help us try to meet this rising demand.

Two Attend AAUW State Convention - Get a Pleasant Surprise

Cynthia Saalfeld and Meg Koziar attended the Arkansas AAUW State Convention in Conway on April 24 & 25. On Saturday morning, the convention was opened with a greeting from Kristy Carter, Executive Director, Outreach & Community Engagement, University of Central Arkansas. Imagine our delight when she announced to the group that she had been an AAUW scholarship recipient in Hot Springs!

Kristy gave us a copy of the newspaper clipping where she is pictured as Kristy Watkins with the two other recipients that year - 1999, when three $900 scholarships were awarded. The article states: "Kristy Watkins ....plans to complete her Associate's Degree and transfer to Henderson State University to work toward a master of education degree. She hopes to become a college counselor." She did exactly that and was very happy to thank our branch for helping her on her way.

It was an excellent convention, focusing on the cost of higher education, with a film, "Ivory Tower" shown on Friday evening, and a presentation by Clint Vogus, Instructor, College of Business, Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, who gave us a copy of his new book, A Current View of Higher Education.

Another speaker was Malinda Gaul, an attorney from San Antonio TX, who is an AAUW National Board Member. She showed us a video "One AAUW," about all that AAUW does, which we hope all our members can see at a future meeting. It certainly made us proud to be members of this organization.

Book Sale Update

Cynthia ~ Kristy ~ Meg

April 14 was the first book collection date at the Unitarian Church. A good number of books were brought in by AAUW members and community members. The next date for book collection is May 12 during the hours of 8:30 – 11:00 a.m. If you have books that you would like to donate, please bring them to the Unitarian Church on May 12. There are still some volunteer positions that need to be filled. You may be contacted by various coordinators to seek your assistance. If you are contacted, please volunteer. If you are not contacted but would like to volunteer for any position, please feel free to contact Marjorie Griffith at ssmkg1@yahoo.com or by phone 501-209-1816 or Brenda Sellers at brendasellers1699@gmail.com or by phone 479-651-0969. We are still in need of leaders for the September sorting sessions. By working together, we will again have a very successful book sale.

Dollars for  Scholars
From President Pam Burns

Because our fund raising efforts have become more than a fall book sale, the branch has renamed the book sale fund to Dollars for Scholars Fund. Last year's fundraising grossed $14,500 from our two book sales, donations, Ebay sales sponsorship posters and raffles. Thanks to your efforts and with our NPCC endowment fund, we are able to provide 10 regular scholarships, a one semester scholarship and 5 transfer scholarships for 2015-16. Last year was our first year to sell on Ebay. Under the leadership of Pam Palis Kalisz, we had a very good beginning. Ebay sales are ongoing and do not end with the book sales effort. If you would like to become a part of the branch Ebay team, please contact Pam at pamsparcs@yahoo.com.
