Memo from Pam Burns

Hot Springs Village Altrusa is holding its annual fundraiser at Christ of the Hills United Methodist Church on Thursday November 13. Tickets are $15, of which $10 is tax-deductible. The ticket price includes both games AND lunch. This is a chance to mutually support our organizations. Altrusa advertised our book sale in their newsletter. The time is from 11:00 to 3:00 pm. Christ of the Hills is located on Balearic across from Levantino Drive.

SUNSHINE CORNER

Member News from Nancy Alkov

We have had quite a few members on the Sick List since our new year began. However, most have recovered nicely. Beth Sampsel, Velma Coolidge and Jeanne Koons have recovered from broken bones. Cynthia Saalfeld and Susan Brayford have both had surgery and are in the healing process. Lee Hess continues to have some issues with her eye sight and could use a ride from time to time. We hope all these AAUW friends are more comfortable every day.

Our Members contributed over $13 to the Sunshine Fund at our recent meeting. Thank you so much!! This will hopefully hold us for awhile. If you know of a member who is ill or needs help, please call me or Joyce Hayek who is also on this committee. Here's to everyone's good health.

UPCOMING MEETING

Our October 15 meeting will again focus on the Hot Springs Documentary Film Festival. The festival is on-going and members may wish to make a day of it and attend a film after our lunch together. We will be meeting for lunch at 11:30 at Zoe's in Hot Springs, located at 2230 Malvern Avenue. Lunch will feature Zoe's very popular trio sampler: quiche, cranberry salad and pimento cheese on raisin bread along with their fresh seasonal lettuce salad and a beverage of your choice. Coffee and a small dessert complete our fantastic lunch. The cost is only $20.00.

Please send your reservation check to Meg Koziar no later than Friday October 10. Any program questions should be directed to Rita Davis, Program Co-Chair. See you there!!!!

AND

Mark your calendar for the November 15 Scholarship Luncheon at Hot Springs Country Club. We'll meet the recipients and learn a bit more about them. This promises to be a great and important event. More to follow later.
